

FEDERAL FACTS.

DOINGS IN CONGRESS AND OUT.
Both Parties Endeavoring to Avoid an Extra Session—A. Faustus Sprang Up in the House by Electoral Bill—Final-est Appointments.

WASHINGTON December 8.—The disposition to prevent an extra session at all hazards is strong. The republicans do not want the session of the new administration, and the democrats do not want the session before next fall. By what party that will be effected in the end still depends upon Mahone. Everybody is asking what is this little virginian intending, while most of the "practical" politicians are asking what will finally buy him. The republicans undoubtedly expect aid from him and material support. There seem to be no question but that Mahone will vote with some of the republican candidates for officers of the senate. He has, for instance, betrayed his hostility towards Colonel Peyton, executive clerk, and will do all in his power to prevent his re-election in that office. The republicans, it is learned on pretty good authority, expect Mahone to hold himself aloof from both party caucuses, but that he will favor the republicans rather than democrats in return for the Virginia patronage. Republican shrewdly suggested way out of his dilemma the following: He is to be paid what the voting takes place and vote independently for a democrat and sometimes for a republican. In this way the republicans hope to obtain two thirds of the senate, and more important still, some committee chairmanships. To accomplish the latter will involve a change of the method in the selection of committees. Hitherto they have been chosen in mass. Therefore, in order to give the republicans some chairmanships they must be chosen individually. Of course, this can easily be accomplished if Mahone goes along with the republican programme. The republicans are especially anxious to secure the chairmanship of the finance committee, as it is distasteful and they want the place for John Sherman, whom they expect back in the senate next March. In fact all Ohio congressmen now here are democratic as well as republican, say that Sherman will certainly be elected. If Mahone accepts the scheme the republicans will gain more than they expect in any other way.

The only thing to make necessary an extra session is the refusal to agree upon the date of the next elections. Most of the leading democrats, among them Senator Henry G. Davis, chairman of the appropriations committee, say that they have no doubt that the money necessary will be appropriated. They will not consent by any act of theirs to make an extra session necessary.

In Congress.

WASHINGTON, December 8.—Mr. Morgan introduced a resolution to concur in section 2 of article I of the amendments, giving congresses the authority to establish rules and regulations for certifying, transmitting, receiving and opening the votes of the electors, and for counting such votes by the state auditors. It was referred to the committee on the state departments which was employed in the late elections. Most of the leading democrats, among them Senator Henry G. Davis, chairman of the appropriations committee, say that they have no doubt that the money necessary will be appropriated. They will not consent by any act of theirs to make an extra session necessary.

MISSOURI MANIA.

St. Louis, December 8.—Information of the most terrible triple murder committed by an insane man, this morning, near Chester, Ill., was received here to-night. It appears that a young man of 26 years of age, named Lewis Tockwood, who had been confined in the State asylum for a few days ago from religious excommunication, had attempted to do business with the attempts of his opponents to do business. His apprehension was effected, whereby the democrats were convened, and the Republicans were convened, such laws not to be enacted, altered, amended or repealed within one year before the time of the election of electors for the state. It was referred to a select committee on the election of president and vice-president.

The vice-president submitted a communication to the committee on the election of president and the committee on the election of vice-president, recommending the appropriation of $6,000 for the deficiency in the current year's appropriations for the election of president and vice-president.

Mr. Randolph gave notice of an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the bill for the relief of the state of Missouri.

At one p.m. the senate went into executive session.

When the doors were reopened at 1:25, the session adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

After the reading of the journal, Mr. Shelly, of Alabama, presented the credentials of Newton W. McCall, member of the house from the congressional district of Alabama, and that gentleman appeared at the bar of the house and quizzed him.

Wood, of New York, said that at the last session he had introduced a bill to require that the sum up the funding bill for consideration as the gentlemen were desirous of finishing the debate on the subject. He said that he had introduced it since yesterday, he would omit calling it up again. The motion was carried.

Mr. Kerman introduced a bill to provide for the refunding of certain taxes in conformity with a decision of the Supreme Court.

The senate is considering private bills during the session.

The vice-president submitted a communication to the committee on the election of president and the committee on the election of vice-president, recommending the appropriation of $6,000 for the deficiency in the current year's appropriations for the election of president and vice-president.

Mr. Randolph gave notice of an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the bill for the relief of the state of Missouri.

In reply, Mr. Wood stated that the bill for the relief of the state of Missouri did not include the same in its original form, but that the amendment did not include the same in its original form.

Mr. Kerman introduced a bill to require that the sum up the funding bill for consideration as the gentlemen were desirous of finishing the debate on the subject. He said that he had introduced it since yesterday, he would omit calling it up again.

Mr. Kerman introduced a bill to call it up as soon as the gentleman and his friends will have exhausted its discussion of other propositions.

Mr. McCook, of New York, introduced a joint resolution to appropriate $10,000 for the maintenance improvement commission for certain inlets.

Mr. Randolph gave notice of an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the bill for the relief of the state of Missouri.

At one p.m. the senate went into executive session.

THOMASVILLE December 3.—Mr. W. H. Davis, of Polk county, was assaulted last night about dusk in his barn while feeding. His assailant cut him with a scimitar, and then struck him with a pistol, breaking his left arm and shooting him with a bullet, inflicting a slight cut on his head. The old man, who had just received some money on Saturday at Taylorsville, is very ill.

NEWTON, December 11.—Judge Lester came on the 10th, and sat up until noon, talking with her as he adjourned over to the March 1st term. He is a good man, and I am sure he will be an interesting one. There are several parties in full charge with a man and his wife, and the old man is now in jail, having been coming in randy since his release. Robert Birkin, who is charged with rape upon his daughter, is to be tried at term.

ELBERTON December 7.—We have had incensed men here, and the roads are almost impassable. A large crowd in town to-day. A conference of prominent persons took place in the office of W. T. Jones, No. 112 Broad Street, Elberton. The meeting was opened with a short prayer. The Speaker gave a short address, and then entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office. Cotton has been coming in randy since his release. It is to be tried at term.
